Historical Context

Claremont, a city with a rich history dating back to the 19th century, has experienced substantial transformations, from industrial growth to modern suburban development. As the city expanded, the need for structured land use regulation became apparent, leading to the establishment of zoning laws in the early 20th century. The Zoning Board of Adjustment was formalized as an administrative body tasked with overseeing the application and interpretation of these laws.

Legal Foundations

The authority of the Zoning Board of Adjustment in Claremont is grounded in state statutes, notably the New Hampshire Zoning Act (RSA 674).
